

Along with all other American citizens, I own the airwaves. We permit broad- and telecasters like Sinclair to use them. These airwaves should be used fairly and in the common interest. I am concerned that Sinclair's requiring its local stations to telecast "Stolen Hours," a fabrication of lies about Senator Kerry, clearly goes beyond the bounds of fairness, good taste, and honesty.